STAN STENNETT MBE, FRWCMD

The phrase: 'All round entertainer' is one that is much misused these days. However, it really can be said to describe Wales' Premiere Entertainer, Stan Stennett.

Stan has been in the business for more years than he cares to remember, having been a semi-pro and musician during the war, before joining the Army. On his demob, he formed a comedy musical trio, The Harmaniacs, and toured with such greats as Max Miller in the late 1940's, as well as a summer season at the Gaiety, Ayr on the bill with a young Lionel Blair.

The 1950's were a boom time for Stan, by then a solo comedian using his guitar and trumpet in an act that saw him teamed with some of America's biggest stars who came to Britain: Billy Daniels, Johnny Ray, Chico Marx, James Cagney and The Deep River Boys. Stan played all the major theatres, was a regular on BBC radio and topped the bill in countless summer seasons and pantomimes with such household names as Morecambe & Wise, Ken Dodd, Ronnie Corbett, Jimmy Young, John Pertwee, Joan Turner, Ruby Murray, Joan Regan etc. etc!

In the early 1960's he joined 'The Black & White Minstrel Show' and was to stay with them as principal comic for seven years, helping to win the 'Golden Rose of Montreaux' TV Festival. It was without doubt the finest show of its kind, and Stan worked with such greats as George Chisholm, John Boulter and Leslie Crowther as the show toured all over the UK, as well as being a regular TV treat for millions.

The artists featured here all appear with Stan in his shows, though not all at the same time! We hope you have enjoyed this souvenir brochure, featuring some favourite pictures from his sixty years in 'the business'.

Thanks to all our hardworking technical staff – Alex Winter, Keith Morris, Owain Morris, Matthew Revell-Griffiths.

Over the last thirty years or so, Stan has concentrated much of his work in Wales, on TV, Stage and Radio. He holds the record for five consecutive years in panto at Cardiff's New Theatre, as well as forming his own production company to stage productions in Porthcawl, Colwyn Bay, Southport and on tour. Together with his wife, Elizabeth and sons Roger and Ceri, he has administered theatres, cinemas and arts centres in Tewkesbury, Hereford, Caerphilly and Porthcawl.

In the 1980's, Stan became known as 'Sid Hooper' from TV's 'Crossroads', a character he portrayed for seven years. He had previously had a stint in 'Coronation Street' as Hilda Ogden's brother. He has turned his hand to opera, as 'Frosch' in 'Die Fledermaus' at St. David's Hall in Cardiff as well as films such as 'Plots with a View' with Christopher Walken and Lee Evans and 'Oh Little Town of Bethlehem'. On the small screen he has appeared in 'Casualty', 'Doctors', 'Heartbeat'. Most recently he has completed the TV Drama, 'The History of Mr Polly', once again alongside Lee Evans.

His annual Christmas pantomimes have made him a legend to thousands of youngsters, as he portrays the character of 'Billy' with his loveable dog, Bonzo, and now Baby Bonzo too!

He holds a private pilots licence, loves golf, is patron of countless Welsh charities, has been the subject of 'This is Your Life' and was awarded the MBE by Her Majesty the Queen in 1979 for services to theatre and charity. He is also a Fellow of the Royal Welsh College of Music and Drama.
