

OFF CENTRE THEATRE'S

- forthcoming productions -

+ Canterbury Tales - Chaucer +

June / July '92 various locations in and around Monmouth.

+ House Guest - Francis Durbridge +

October 1992.

++ Alladin ++

Xmas Production

--- for further details ---

please refer to, among others,
the Monmouth Beacon.

OFF
CENTRE
THEATRE

PRESENT

NOT SUITABLE FOR CHILDREN

AT MONMOUTH LEISURE CENTRE

MAY.28.29.30 AT 7.30 1992

TICKETS : £3.00 , £2.50 (concessionary)

TICKETS AVAILABLE FROM BRIAN WILLIAMS, CHURCH ST. ORTEL, MONMOUTH T15 9JG.

WHAT THE BUTLER SAW

BY

JOE ORTON

Orton's most savage onslaught on the way power and respectability are used!

Everything is as uninhibited as a discarded pair of knickers. You are in a madhouse, insanity is the order of the day!

Sit back, and enjoy - laughter is a marvelous medicine.

ACT 1 & 2

A room in a private clinic.

- morning -

There will be a fifteen minute interval between acts.

SPECIAL THANKS TO THE FOLLOWING FOR THEIR INVALUABLE HELP AND SUPPORT.

Monmouth Hospital, Ghyllside Signs, Ultralight (Lighting) Limited,
Brian Williams, Yorkshire Building Society, Robert Price,
Monmouth Comprehensive School, Barry Cambden and Monmouth Leisure Centre Staff
1st Wyesham Souts, Mr Waller - Overmonnow School and Jenny Abbott-Smith,
Gwent Constabulary

AND ALL OTHER PEOPLE WHO HAVE HELPED IN ANY WAY

CAST

Geraldine Barclay Marni Erwin
Dr Prentice Cedric Gibbons
Mrs Prentice Ann Godfrey
Nick Nigel Cass
Dr Rance Geoffrey Manning
Sergeant Match Mike Ellis

Directed by Jim Newcomb
Stage Manager Anne MacFarlane
Assisted by Sue Manning, Stephanie Blunt
& Stuart MacFarlane
Continuity Avril Farley
Lighting Holly Evans, Paul Macer-Wright
Publicity Toby Harris, Stuart MacFarlane
Vernon Taylor, Jeanne Dauncey
Set Design Dave Evans, Toby Harris
Set Construction Dave Evans, Toby Harris
Steve Brettal, Terry Dauncey
Richard Evans and the Cast
Front of House Sue Evans, Dick Cass and Friends