BEDROOM FARCE

by

ALAN AYCKBOURNE

Bedroom Farce is a play for four men and four women. Ernest and Delia go out to a dinner to celebrate their wedding anniversary. When this is a failure they return home and prepare to celebrate with picnics on toast in bed. Malcolm and Kate are preparing a house-warming party; Nick and Jan have been invited to this but Nick has hurt his back and prepares to rest quietly in bed. All three preparations are doomed, however, to disaster by the marital problems of Trevor (son of Ernest and Delia) and his wife, who descend on each couple in turn leaving chaos in their wake, finally taking over the bedroom (and bed) of the long-suffering Malcolm and Kate. The three bedrooms are presented simultaneously on stage and the action flows in and out.
