APRIL IN PARIS

By John Godber

This warm-hearted comedy from the author of "Teachers" which was performed to much acclaim by Off Centre Theatre in Oct 1995, was commissioned by the Hull 1992 Festival for the Hull Truck Theatre Company.

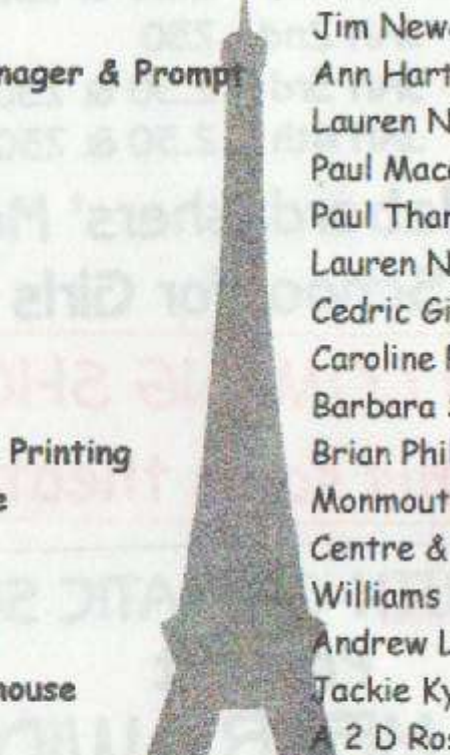

Bet and Al lead a quiet, hum-drum life in their small northern home until Bet wins a "Romantic Break" competition in a magazine. The prize, a holiday for two in Paris, represents their first experience abroad and has profound effects on the way they look at the world around them once they return home. They sort out French cuisine, wrestle with their phrase book, and fend off would-be muggers on the Metro in this hilarious depiction of the English abroad. This is the Welsh amateur premier of this play as it has only been available to the amateur theatre since 1st September this year.
